

SIGNIFICANCE ATTACHED TO ELECTION RESULTS TODAY

From Returns Party Leaders Will Endeavor to Determine the Drift of Popular Sentiment—Virginia the Only State to Elect a Governor—In New Jersey the "Wet and Dry" Issue Figures in the Legislative Election—In New York City the Mayoralty Campaign Managers of Both Hylan, Democratic Candidate, and Curran, Coalition Candidate, Are Equally Sanguine of Victory—With 447,015 Women Voters Entering the Contest, Both Sides Admitted That Much Depended on Their Votes.

New York, Nov. 1.—Election day tomorrow marks an "off year" in national politics.

Only one state, Virginia, elects a governor and there are but few other state-wide contests of any sort. Leaders of the two major parties, however, are watching closely the result of these few states and numerous municipal elections in an effort to determine the drift of popular sentiment to aid them in preparing for the congressional elections next year.

But the most important of the court of appeals, two state senators and one

"Last year, in this county," he declared, "the manner in which the count for certain offices was made was a scandal and disgrace. In some sections of the city, inspectors deserted their posts. In others they were exhausted before the counting was completed and in some districts the inspectors were sent out scurrying in the middle of the night to find strangers and stragglers to count the vote and in all ways made it possible to nullify the expressed will of the people by a fraudulent and improper count of the

The Honest Ballot Association announced that 1,900 watchers had been placed in the general hundred names already have been placed on the ballot for the elections to be placed on the official challenge list, because of records of "wholesale vote buying" which became current last week.

Entered in the mayoralty field with Hyman L. Goldstein, State Senator Jacob Panken, socialist; Jerome D. H. H.

There are no statewide elections in the west.

HYLAN AND CURRAN
MANAGERS BOTH CONFIDENT

New York, Nov. 7.—Canny caution clung tonight to the tongues of political leaders on the eve of New York's 1911 municipal election, for all candidates were watching warily the way in which the contest would be fought in the city offices—including Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes, who, under the communist banner, is seeking the presidency of the borough of Manhattan—in the event which might be termed the "woman's special" to the contest for register. Entries include: Helen Varick Howell, republican; Annie Mathews, democrat; Olga Long, socialist; and Grace Scribner, farmer-labor.

Father Knickerbocker's daughters should cast their ballots on the morrow for the first mayor that had helped choose.

While the campaign managers of Mayor John F. Hyland, Tammany's candidate for re-election, and the political advisors of Henry H. Curran, president of the borough of Manhattan, who heads the

PROHIBITION FEATURES CONTEST IN NEW JERSEY

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Enforcement of prohibition is the chief bone of contention in tomorrow's election of sixty New Jersey assemblymen and six state

Neither Hylan nor Curran, apparently thought his position sufficiently secure to warrant a holiday on the day before the ballots were cast and each continued his campaign to the zero hour.

Meanwhile a sinister note was sounded today by Judge Talley of general session himself a candidate for re-election, who directed two new grand juries to put aside all other business in order to deal promptly with possible violations of the election laws.	ballots. This would enable them to elect a democrat as state treasurer.

CRAIG CALLS MEMBERS OF ULSTER CABINET TO LONDON	GOV. LAKE'S ARMISTICE DAY PROCLAMATION

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 7. — Governor

The members of the Ulster cabinet who will attend the meeting include John Milne Barbour, the marquess of Londonderry, U. S. Andrews and E. A. Archdale, Thomas Moles, chairman of the committee of the Ulster parliament, will

The official announcement of this action also stated that there would be a further conference with Mr. Lloyd George Thursday afternoon.

It is understood that the Ulster premier informed Mr. Lloyd George that he could not possibly think of shouldering ing the responsibility of accepting the proposals made to him by the prime minister, and would be compelled to consult his colleagues in the Ulster parliament and also the representatives of the Ulster parliamentary group in Westminster.

Sir James Craig authorized the statement that Mr. Lloyd George had consented to meet the Ulster delegation after their meeting with Sir James.

Everything, it is said, now depends on Thursday's meetings, and if the Ulster representatives definitely reject the com-

According to the agency reports issued at a late hour tonight the serious official view regarding the negotiations is due to the stiff attitude taken by the Ulster premier in his interview with the prime minister. Sir James is represented as intimating his firm determination to maintain Ulster's position, as he is said to have signified that in his opinion the proposals which Mr. Lloyd George submitted to him seriously imperilled the reports of Ireland. In any case, he would

ASSASSINATION OF HARA
NO SURPRISE TO WIDOW

Honolulu, Nov. 7.—Death at the hands of

Of an assassin came as no surprise to Premier Hara of Japan, according to a statement made by the premier's widow and reported by the Tokio correspondent of a Japanese daily here. Madame Hara said:

"My husband knew that he had many filled for the blanks were the Connecticut Breweries company, Bridgeport; the Fresenius Brewing company, New Haven, and the New England Brewing company, Hartford.

ASPHIXIATED HERSELF AND

political enemies. His death by violence was an event not to cause surprise. He had told me just what to do should his end come in that manner, and I will do it."

Madame Hara received the news of her husband's assassination with perfect self-possession and without tears.

HER SEVEN-YEAR-OLD SON

Pawtucket, R. I., Nov. 7.—Following receipt of a letter from Mrs. Lillian Nickols, Frank M. Rose went to her home today and after battering in the door found her and her seven-year-old son.

The posthumous title of nobility conferred on the dead premier by the throne has been declined by the Hara family, says the Shimizu's correspondent.